

EVENT SPONSORSHIP

Boulder County Senior Law Day provides seniors and their families with information and resources to address specific legal and financial needs. Local attorneys and related professionals are invited and scheduled to present informative seminars on legal topics of interest to seniors, adult children, friends and caregivers. Topics from the past have included estate planning basics, elder fraud protection, local legal services and how to find/choose an attorney, choosing the right caregiver, Medicaid for long-term care, resolving family conflict and advanced medical directives.
